9 Killed As Arctic Wave Sweeps West

19 Missing; 44 Below Zero Recorded In Oregon

By UNITED PRESS

Nine persons were dead and at least 19 were feared lost in snowdrifts today as a wave of Arctic weather swept over the western states, damaging crops and sending temperatures to new lows.

Eighteen sheepherders were believed snowbound without food at Pleasant Valley, Nevada. A state highway crew battled through huge snowdrifts in an attempt to break a road through to the marooned men. Thermometers registered 22 degrees below zero at midnight Wednesday.

The family of John Vargas, 24, was wiped out when fire, attributed to an overheated stove left burning while the family slept, destroyed their home at Hayward, California. The victims were Vargas, his wife and their infant daughter.

Icy weather brought death to John Penyon, 21, who froze in his stalled automobile at Butte, Montana. At Missoula, Horace Carter, 73, was burned to death when a stove overheated his cabin. Another man was missing and feared frozen to death between Butte and Dillon, Montana.

At Sonora, the body of Gus Ebsen, 44, was found by a skiing companion from whom he had become separated. Ebsen was the victim of exposure and exhaustion.

Mack Reese, 36, Dillon, Montana, was feared lost in snowdrifts. A car in which he was riding became stalled on a highway and Reese set out for help. No word has been received from him since then.

The mercury plunged lowest in the Northwest, and weather bureau forecasters predicted little relief from the chilly blasts during the remainder of the week. Meacham, Oregon, recorded the coast's low mark of 44 degrees below zero. Bieber, California registered 34 below, and Tule Lake recorded 21 below. Soda Spring experienced a minimum temperature of 20 degrees below zero. Alturas registered 33 degrees below zero.

In the San Joaquin Valley of California, school officials and health officers ordered many schools closed in an attempt to check the spread of an influenza epidemic. Twenty-five per cent of the students enrolled in elementary schools in Stanislaus County were reported stricken.

JUNIOR SKIERS TOURNAMENT GETS STATE APPROVAL

Proposal of the Placerville Ski Club to stage junior winter sports tournament at Pacific House on February 7 has been approved and authority has been granted by the state ski association.

This is according to Adolph Martin, president of the Placerville Ski Club. With authority to proceed granted, members of the committee in charge will meet the fore part of the week to perfect details for the event.

The junior tournament at Pacific House will be the only tournament for junior skiers in this section of the state this season, it is reported.

Arnold N. Weber of Placerville, state ski association president, states that sanction for the tournament revolved chiefly upon the question of tournament dates for all clubs in the state body and that these have been arranged so that no other events will interfere with the February 7 date.

BEARD—A London newspaper recently reported that some of its subscribers "seriously suggested" that King George VI grow a beard, to look like his father, George V. So our artist did what a lot of us like to do and painted a beard and mustache on the King's photograph, as above.

10,000 Driven From Homes In Winter Floods

$5,000,000 Loss Seen; 50 Marooned On Island

CINCINNATI, O. (AP)—A sudden rise in the lower Ohio River today, due to persistent rains, sent estimates of flood damage in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky as high as $5,000,000.

The Rampant River had driven approximately 10,000 families from their homes ahead of flood waters even higher than those of last spring. The Red Cross and other relief agencies received several calls hourly. All refugees were well cared for.

50 MAROONED

KENNETT, Mo. (AP)—Flood waters crept slowly over tiny Allen's Island in the raging St. Francis River early today where an unknown number of persons, believed to approximate 50, prayed for rescue before their haven is inundated entirely.

The rain poured and the wind howled and against the flat shores pounded the flood maddened river. Up-rooted trees, wrecks of small buildings, and other debris piled up dangerously. The marooned men and women clung to the roofs of the island's crude buildings lest the wind fling them into the swirling current and destruction.

Fifteen boats of the army engineers river service were ready to put out at dawn to take them to safety. The island—a flat strip in the river—is six miles below here.

The boats had taken off most of the island's 1,000 normal population before they were forced to withdraw at dusk yesterday. The river current was too swift and to laden with debris to risk rescue work at night.

Along the raging tributaries of the Mississippi in southeast Missouri and northern east Arkansas, guards with shotguns patrolled the levees today, under orders to shoot to kill anyone tampering with the embankments holding back sufficient quantities of flood waters to inundate the countryside for miles around.

The situation was most critical at Big Lake in northwest Arkansas where scores of emergency workers, supervised by army engineers, were sandbagging levees.

EXTENSION SERVICE WORK IN COUNTY FOR YEAR REPORTED

The Farm Advisor's report for the year 1936 shows that 463 farm visits were made by the Farm Advisor to 209 different farms, and that 1,462 office calls and 285 telephone calls, requesting information and assistance, were received during the year.

Office calls and farm visits covered the following subjects: legumes and forage crops, potatoes, fruits, vegetables, home beautification, forestry, agricultural engineering, bees, poultry, livestock, agricultural economics, foods and nutrition, sanitation, 4-H club work, community activities, rodent and predatory animal control, the control of weeds and insects, soil conservation, agricultural adjustment, and other miscellaneous subjects.

One hundred and ninety-two extension service meetings were held with an attendance of 4,543. These meetings included: 13 leaders' training meetings, 10 method demonstrations, two 4-H club tours, 59 farm center meetings, 7 project committee meetings, nine Farm Bureau Director's meetings, 57 4-H club meetings, and other gatherings of an Extension nature.

Altogether, the Extension Service in this county was represented at a total of 196 meetings, at which 4,997 persons were in attendance.

Probably one of the most important and popular projects carried on through the Farm Advisor's office, in Placerville, is 4-H club work. All rural children, between the ages of 10 and 21, have an opportunity to join these agricultural clubs, through which they receive valuable training in approved farm practices, keeping accounts, conducting business meetings,

FRENCH CREEK MAN SUCCUMBS ON WEDNESDAY

John F. Pierson, aged 69, of the French Creek district, dropped dead Wednesday afternoon and the excitement and shock of the occasion so seriously effected Mrs. Bessie Conders that she was brought to the county hospital for observation and treatment.

Pierson resides on a mining claim about three quarters of a mile from the Fred Schenk property. He went to the Schenk place Wednesday afternoon to meet a butcher on a meat route, made a purchase and collapsed.

Mrs. Conders, a housekeeper at the Schenk place, was so overcome that it was necessary to remove her to the hospital.

Coroner A. J. Orelli has learned that Mr. Pierson has relatives in the Sloughhouse section and he is endeavoring to communicate with him.

Director Of U. S. Prisons Resigns Post

Roosevelt Expresses Regret At Loss Of Bates

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sanford Bates, director of federal prisons, resigned today.

Bates' resignation came as a surprise. His post is one of the major offices in the Department of Justice.

Bates' views on prison parole and pardons several times have conflicted with those of J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Hoover has been critical of parole methods—especially those followed by the states. Bates has been a strong supporter of parole systems.

President Roosevelt sent to Bates a letter tendering best wishes and expressing "sincere regrets" that the government was to be deprived of his "fine public service."

During his regime as director of prisons Bates clashed repeatedly with Hoover. Bates always held that there was some good in any man, if it only could be brought to the surface, and advocated humane parole systems for all prisons. Hoover held that too lenient parole boards were responsible for putting many criminals on the streets when they could better have been retained behind bars.

Bates, former commissioner of the Department of Correction of Massachusetts, was appointed superintendent of federal prisons in 1929, one year later became director of the bureau of prisons and was reappointed to the same position in 1933.

CABIN BURGLAR GETS 3 MONTHS TERM IN JAIL

Calvin MacMahon, who pleaded guilty to two counts on charges of burglarizing summer homes, was sentenced to three months in the county jail and placed on probation for two years when he appeared Tuesday afternoon in Superior Court for sentencing. MacMahon was the third of three youths arrested for cabin burglaries, the other two being Charles Cellini and Alphonse Cellini.

They are under sentence of two months in the county jail, following which they are on two years probation.

14 SAN MATEO SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR INFLUENZA

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Spread of San Francisco influenza epidemic appeared to be waning today with 141 new cases reported yesterday in contrast with 245 the day before.

In San Mateo County, however, 14 schools were ordered closed until Monday as severe colds and influenza continued to thin the ranks of the students.

Dr. J. C. Geiger, city health director, said there appeared no necessity for closing any San Francisco schools.

All swimming pools were closed and some physical education activities were halted at the University of California at Berkeley as the influenza wave continued to spread there. Twenty-two new victims were confined to the University hospital, and 11 released, bringing the total to 72. Only one case of pneumonia was reported.

Drunken Driving Draws $200 Fine

Ranger Raleigh Bryan was at Sacramento Wednesday evening attending the annual dinner of the Mt. Ralston Fish Planting Club.

Who, Me?

Worse Than Wrecks

We agree that an appalling number of persons is killed each year in automobile accidents, but there are other fields in which safety precautions might hope to accomplish just as much and perhaps more than is possible in the field of automobile travel.

The average American, we are informed by the Literary Digest, is three and one half times more likely to be struck down by pneumonia than by an automobile.

Twenty per cent of all pneumonia cases terminate fatally and yet, it is said that out of every four who die of lobar pneumonia, three die needlessly. A lately developed serum could help them.

We should endeavor to compel motorists to drive more safely and sanely, but we must not lose sight of the statistics from other fields which show us that traffic fatalities are but one of a number of things robbing us of the potential contributions in the lives of citizens snuffed out by carelessness.

BADGE FROM BULLETS

KANSAS CITY, MO. (UP)—Merle A. Gill, police department ballistics, today had a new badge, one made from bullets and cartridge shells from the guns of some of the nation's "first" criminals. To make the badge Gill melted down mementoes from the guns of such public enemies as Clyde Barrow, Bonnie Parker, Alvin Karpis, "Pretty Boy" Floyd, "Machine Gun" Kelly and Wilbur Underhill.

PRICE OF FAGS DUE FOR BOOST

NEW YORK (UP)—Retail cigarette chain stores and independent dealers will advance the price of leading brands of cigarettes to 14 cents a package and 2 packages for 27 cents on Monday, January 25, it was learned today.

The price had been 13 cents a package and two for 25 cents.

The advance reflects increases announced by leading cigarette manufacturers. Yesterday the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., P. Lorillard Co., and Liggett & Meyers announced increases of 15 cents to $5.25 a thousand. The American Tobacco Company followed today.

The Reynolds advance was effective immediately, but other companies granted customers credit for two weeks average purchases at the old price.

CLOCK FOR MUSEUM

NEW YORK (UP)—A 175-year-old grandfather's clock, once the property of a noted doctor of colonial days, has been presented to the New York Academy of Medicine. With the clock went $500 to keep it wound and in repair. The gift was outlined in the will of Dr. Henry P. Mosley of Santa Barbara, California, who died January 4. He inherited the clock from his great grandfather, Dr. Elisha Perkins of Plainfield, Connecticut.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UP)—From one of my secret agents, who keeps his ear so close to the ground that it is continually being stepped on, I have been tipped that the United States Golf Association is considering a revolutionary move to try to increase the joys of golf for the duffer.

This scheme is so sensational and yet so sound that I could scarcely believe what agent 1791 told me. For the first time I began to suspect that passersby had been stepping on his head as well as his ear to the ground. But here is his report for what it's worth.

On January 1, 1938, when the fourteen club rule goes into effect, the U. S. G. A. will announce that the duffers who shoot 100 or worse may carry a shotgun and fishing rod for two of their clubs. This legislation is based on the indisputable fact that the true duffer spends most of his time in the woods or in the water. As compensation for this he can use his gun to shoot any game he meets in the rough, and with his rod he can do a bit of fishing while he waits for his caddy to recover his ball from the water hazard.

As a duffer I am thoroughly in favor of the gun-and-rod ruling. Many is the time I have flushed up a nice covey of birds with my No. 4 iron, and many is the fish I have started leaping with a beautifully sliced brassie into the laughing waters. There are many of us who never have won a golf tournament and never will, but with the gun and rod we would be enabled to fill the vacant places on the mantelpiece and in the trophy case with fine examples of marine and animal life.

The gun-and-rod rule would do much for the domestic happiness of the duffer. The little wife (or more frightening, the big wife) could hardly get mad at her golfing husband for losing a three dollar nassau if, hanging from his belt, were a brace of pheasants and a cottontail, and stuffed in his bag were three or four speckled trout.

If the rule goes into effect it will change many things in golf. The handicapping, for one thing. The players it affects will be given ratings based on what they actually SHOOT, and when I say shoot I mean shoot. Duffers whose shots are under some sort of control, and who get only in the edge of the woods will be "three pheasant" and "two rabbit" and "one snake" players. Those of us who have no control, and as a result are forced to penetrate into country that would have made even Dr. Livingstone stop and think twice, will be classified as "moose, panther, chipmunk and wolf" shooters. In short, instead of three-handicap and four-handicap players the terminology will be something like that in this imaginary conversation.

"Let's get Jones for a foursome. He's a three-pickeree player, and can par with Smith who is a one-caribou shooter."

It will affect the esteem in which golf courses are held, too. It won't be enough for a course to be known only for its fine greens. Prospective members will ask such questions as: "How are the greens and grouse?" "Are the traps more numerous than the trout?"

The government probably will step in and create a St. Andrews of America in one of the national game preserves, with such slogans as: "A part-ridge for every par," and "a bear for every bogey."

ART AND ART

NEW YORK (UP)—Katherine S. Dreier, president of the Societe Anonyme, active in the modern art movement, refused to lend works to the Museum of Modern Art because its recent exhibition of fantastic art, Dada and Surrealism included works by children and the insane.

FLU AT WORST IN 1st WEEKS OF NEW YEARS

NEW YORK (UP)—Outbreaks of influenza usually occur in the first seven weeks of new years, according to a survey by the New York department of health which covers the past 15 years.

Dr. John L. Rice, health commissioner, pointed out that outbreaks always appear suddenly, with the number of cases rising rapidly to a peak, usually within three weeks. From that point the outbreak dwindles and often is ended in about six weeks.

"Because cases of influenza are not everywhere reportable throughout the country," Dr. Rice said, "it is not immediately possible to determine to what extent the disease is prevalent. From government reports, there is no doubt that during the first few weeks of January mild influenza prevailed in many parts of the country. All available information indicates that the mortality is low."

Dr. Rice's advice in influenza cases is: Isolate the patient. Keep visitors away. Entrust nursing to one person, if possible. A physician should be in attendance.

2-TIME LOSER SURRENDERS AS EXTORTIONIST

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Dave Harris, weakened 47-year-old two-time loser to the law, faces another prison term, this time for attempting to extort $35,000 from Jane Withers and Freddie Bartholomew, child movie stars. Harris surrendered because his conscience bothered him.

"I was hungry and I figured it was a way to make some easy money," Harris explained. "But I guess I'm in a hell of a jam now."

If Harris was worried, however, his manner didn't indicate it. He grinned amiably at the officers, readily admitted authorship of the letters he sent Mrs. W. E. Withers, Jane's mother, and Mrs. Lillian May Bartholomew, Freddie's mother, and seemed pleased that the constant fear of arrest had been lifted.

Harris, who weighs about 90 pounds and is four feet-eight inches tall, explained he "picked on little people because I'm a little guy myself." He demanded $25,000 from Mrs. Bartholomew and $10,000 from Mrs. Withers. The letters were written a month ago and were sent both to the children themselves and to the parents. Studio officials turned them over to police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

30 PER CENT OF MOTORISTS GET LICENSES

SACRAMENTO—More than 70 per cent of the motorists have failed to secure their 1937 license plates to date, Howard E. Deems, state registrar of vehicles, announced today.

With only 15 days remaining before the deadline at midnight, February 4, he said, they are facing the possibility of a 100 per cent penalty on both the registration fee and the motor vehicle license fee.

"Last year," Deems declared, "100,000 persons were compelled by law to pay a 100 per cent penalty because they delayed in getting their plates until after February 4th."

This year motorists will have fewer inconveniences in getting their plates because all offices of the department will be open on Saturday afternoons during January; postal card notices have been improved and 14 temporary branch offices have been established.

Here Are Pie Recipes Everyone Will Enjoy

By JUDITH WILSON

LITTLE Jack Horner wouldn't be content to "stick in his thumb and pull out a plum" if he could taste these pies! They would soon vanish, pastry, filling and all down to the last crumb. Big boys and little boys, to say nothing of mother and sister will like these pies, too.

Fresh Pear Pie
Line a pie tin with rich pastry. Chill thoroughly. Peel and slice into the pan, 6 late fall pears. Add a scant cup of sugar that has been mixed with 1 tablespoon flour, a dash of cinnamon, nutmeg and salt. Pour 1 cup thick cream over the fruit and bake 40 minutes in a hot oven.

Coffee Whip Pie
This is a pie of the chilled variety that your family will enjoy occasionally. To make the crust, roll 1 cup vanilla wafer crumbs until fine. Mix with 3 tablespoons melted butter and 1/4 cup walnut meats, chopped fine. Press into a greased 9 inch pie pan and chill while you prepare the filling.

For the filling soak 1 tablespoon gelatin in 1 tablespoon cold water. Dissolve in 1 cup strong, hot coffee. Add 2 or 3 tablespoons sugar to taste and chill until slightly thickened. Beat with a rotary egg beater until fluffy. Add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla to 1 cup heavy cream and whip until very stiff. Blend with the coffee gelatin and turn into the crust shell. Chill for 5 hours or until filling is firm. Garnish with additional whipped cream and nutmeats.

Chocolate-Mint Pie
Mix together 1/4 cup sugar, 3 tablespoons flour and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add 3 squares of chocolate cut in pieces. Add 1 1/2 cups hot milk, gradually. Cover and cook 10 minutes longer. Pour over the beaten yolks of 2 eggs and mix well. Cool slightly and add 1/2 teaspoon essence of peppermint. Pour into a baked 9-inch pie shell. Chill thoroughly and serve with flavored and sweetened whipped cream. Crushed peppermint stick candy sprinkled over the cream adds an attractive and tasty touch.

Banana Rolls
Make a rich pie pastry using 2 1/2 cups flour, chill and roll thin. Peel 6 bananas and cut in halves crosswise. Mix 1/2 cup sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Roll the bananas in lemon juice, then in the sugar mixture and lay each half on a square of pie crust. Roll so the banana is completely enclosed in the pastry. Lay, cut edge down on a greased baking pan and bake in a hot oven 30 minutes or until browned. This is especially good served with a lemon sauce.

Cherry Pie with Ice Cream
Mix 1/2 cup sugar and 2 tablespoons flour and add to 1 No. 1 can pitted red cherries and their juice. Cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Chill thoroughly. Pack 1 pint vanilla ice cream into a baked pie shell and spread on the cherry mixture. Serve immediately. If you wish a meringue may be heaped over the cherries and the whole pie slipped under the broiler for a few seconds to brown the top. If the meringue is browned quickly the ice cream will not have time to melt.

Lemon Pie
Beat well the yolks of 4 eggs with 2 cups sugar and 1 large tablespoon melted butter. Moisten 3 tablespoons cornstarch to a smooth paste with a little cold water. Put into the double boiler 1 1/2 cups boiling water, stir the cornstarch into this and beat with an egg beater until smooth. Add the egg mixture, with the juice of 3 lemons and the grated rind of 1. Cook, stirring constantly until very thick. Pour into a previously baked pie shell, and top thickly with a meringue made from the egg whites and 6 tablespoons fine sugar. Bake in a slow oven until the meringue is firm and light brown.

Which Soup

There are three main types of soup: clear soup, cream soup and chowder. The menu maker should carefully select the right kind for the right place. Use a light soup for a hearty meal and a hearty soup for a light meal. Clear soup precedes a meal, while a cream soup or chowder may make the main course of a light meal.

A clear bouillon soup, or consommé, is little more than meat flavored water and yet it requires so many ingredients to get the right mixture of flavors, that one might better buy bouillon cubes or canned bouillon than to try to make it at home. If you wish to change the flavor or make it distinctive, heat it with a slice of onion or add such seasoning as you like. Partially cooked diced carrots, string beans or peas might make it something different.

To make cream soups, one cooks vegetables until very tender and presses them through a sieve, then adds well seasoned white sauce. Canned vegetables may be used or minced left-overs or vegetable pulp canned for infants. Canned vegetables usually need more cooking before they will go through a sieve. The most popular flavor is onion and the best results are obtained if a slice of onion is cooked in the butter used for white sauce and then removed. Some cooks do not put the vegetables through a sieve, but cut them fine and leave them in the soup. The water in which the vegetable is cooked should always be added to the soup. Vegetables appropriate for cream soups are: potatoes, onion, celery, cauliflower, carrots, spinach, tomatoes, peas, green beans and mushrooms.

Of bouillon one usually serves only a half cup, of cream soup, a cup; but there are the hearty soups—chowders, stews, and bisques—which almost comprise the meal and of which one expects a bowlful.

Chowder is usually made of fish or shellfish, as oysters, clams, lobster or other fish. They may be stewed with milk, or vegetables may be added, and usually the seasoning is complicated and hot.

Dried beans and peas are often made into soups and there are vegetable soups made with meat stock or bouillon cubes and vegetables. Soups should be served very hot and may be garnished with parsley, thinly sliced lemon, cooked rice, macaroni, pimiento, a few grains of pop corn or a teaspoon of whipped cream on top.

Waffle Variations

Your waffle iron, which the family thinks is so much fun at the table, might appear there much oftener. Waffles may be the basis of many dishes besides the standard breakfast food.

Almost everyone enjoys waffles and would like to have them at other meals than breakfast. Waffles suppers are a popular form of entertainment. Waffles may be the backbone of the meal, if served with creamed chipped dried beef or other nourishing gravy, with creamed mushrooms or other vegetables.

Add grated cheese, peanut butter, chopped ham or other chopped meat to your waffle batter and serve with a sauce. Other recipes than waffle batter may be baked in the waffle iron. Use it for gingerbread, chocolate waffles, shortcake and various sweet concoctions. These may be served as desserts with fruit.

To Keep Lemons

Shutting the air out from lemons will prevent their drying and make them keep fresh longer. They may be wrapped in tissue paper; left in a bag, or an outside bag may enclose the first one. They may be put into a jar of cold water, or buried in sawdust.

Carrot Greenery

The children will enjoy a novel hanging basket made from a carrot. Cut off the end of a large carrot, about four inches from the top. Hollow out the center and run a stick through the carrot, crosswise near the cut end. Hang it upside down in a sunny window; keep the hollow part filled with water and in a very short time leaves will put forth and grow all over the carrot, making a pretty greenery.

If you wish to remove surplus fat from soup or gravy, set it outdoors to cool quickly, pour a little cold water into it, or drop a few ice cubes into it and the fat will rise to the top and may be skimmed off. If you cannot wait for this, skim it off carefully as you would skim the cream off from milk.

FRUIT CAKE

One pound butter, 1 1/4 pounds granulated sugar, 1 dozen eggs, 1 pound cake flour, 1 cup molasses, 2 tablespoons very strong coffee, 1 cup brandy, 1 teaspoon each of ground cloves, cinnamon, mace, allspice and nutmeg, 1 tablespoon vanilla, 1 heaping tablespoon soda, 2 pounds seeded raisins, 2 pounds Sultana raisins, 2 pounds currants, 1 pound citron finely chopped lemon peel, 1 pound crystallized pineapple, 1 pound candied cherries, 2 pounds mixed nut meats (not peanuts). Sprinkle fruit lightly over with flour, mix and bake 3 hours in pans well lined with several thicknesses of well greased paper.

227 Drowned When Ferry Overtakes

HONG KONG (UP)—At least 227 lives were lost, including more than 100 women and children, when the ferryboat Manchuk capsized in the Kanchu rapids early today in an almost identical repetition of the Eastland disaster in Chicago in 1915.

The ferryboat, with 340 passengers, most of whom were Chinese students on the way to Kingmoon, across the bay, went aground in the West River. The passengers all rushed to one side and the vessel was overbalanced. Nearly by fishing junks were reported to have rescued 113 persons.

ALL PRESENT

CLEVELAND (UP)—Police in downtown Elyria gave two-mile chase after four 18-year-old auto thief suspects. At an intersection, the pursued car crashed another. Three of the youths surrendered. A fourth escaped. Cleveland detectives, returning the trio early today, squinted closely as they spotted a hitch-hiking youth up the road. It was the missing member of the quartet.

LAJOIE, SPEAKER, CY YOUNG IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

NEW YORK (UP)—Three diamond heroes of yesteryear—Napoleon Lajoie, Tris Speaker and Cy Young have joined Babe Ruth, Christy Mathewson, Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson and Honus Wagner in baseball's perpetual Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., birthplace of the game.

The three newcomers were decided by a poll of members of the baseball writers association requiring a 75 per cent majority of the votes. More than 100 players of the modern school (since 1900) received votes, but Lajoie, Speaker and Young were the only ones polling the necessary majority—151 votes—from the 201 voting writers.

Lajoie, who batted over .300 for 15 years while playing in the National and American Leagues, was given 108 votes to lead the field. He received three more votes than Speaker, one of the greatest outfielders of all time who performed with Boston, Cleveland, Washington and Philadelphia for more than 20 years. Young barely made the grade with 152 votes. He won more games and pitched more games than any other player in history.

The Farm Advisor has assisted a number of sheepmen in administering Nema capsules to their flocks to control internal parasites. Requests are frequently received for assistance in the problems of feeding all kinds of livestock and poultry.

At the request of the Farm Advisor, specialist from the University of California spent a total of 50 days in the county assisting and giving advice on special problems. Thirty-one articles were published, and 495 individual letters of information were written. Fifteen circular letters, in addition to notices of all meetings, were sent to El Dorado County farmers. One thousand and fifty-nine agricultural bulletins, on a wide variety of subjects, were given out upon request.

The whole report seems to show that the Extension Service in El Dorado County is reaching a larger field each year, and is becoming more of a service to farmers as they learn to use the Farm Advisor's office as a clearing-house for their problems.
